

KP Public Affairs Looks to the Future with Public Policy Holding Company

Today, KP Public Affairs announced that it has joined Public Policy Holding Company (PPHC), a leading bi-partisan, full-service US government affairs business.

As a subsidiary of PPHC, KP will continue operating under its existing brand and with its longstanding management team and staff. As part of a growing company, KP remains focused on providing leadership and strategy on California policy issues, delivering superior services, and embracing a strong work ethic.

KP Public Affairs will work with five other operating entities – Crossroads Strategies LLC, Forbes Tate Partners LLC, Seven Letter, O’Neill & Associates and Alpine Group Partners LLC – which form the operating subsidiaries.
